3. Ticket Accumulation Rules

Clients can accumulate tickets through all available methods: trading activity, Partner referrals, and task completion. Tickets earned from all sources are combined, regardless of whether the Client participates as a Trader, a Partner, or both. This means every eligible action contributes to the Client's total number of entries in the prize draw.

3.1 Traders

- 0.1 fully closed standard lot = 1 ticket.
- Partial lots accumulate.
- Completing designated tasks grants additional tickets. Each task may only be completed once during the Promotion.

3.2 Partners

- Available after the client joins the IB program

- Partner receives 1 ticket when their directly referred client closes their first-ever 0.1 lot (lifetime), regardless of when the client was registered, as long as the lot is closed after the Partner has joined the Promotion.
- Every additional 1 lot traded by all direct clients combined = 1 ticket.

4. Lot Calculation Rules

4.1 1 lot on a Cent account is equivalent to 0.01 lot on a Standard or Pro account.

4.2 For Stocks, Crypto, Indexes, Energies, and other index instruments, if the cost of 1 lot is less than 100,000 USD, the lot calculation formula is: 1 lot * Contract size * Price in USD / 100,000
